THE CMLA ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF MARLA GUILLAUME TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Community Mortgage Lenders of America's (CMLA) incoming Chair, Kim Curtis announced the appointment of Marla Guillaume to the Board of Directors.

"Marla's vast knowledge of all aspects of the mortgage industry and her proven leadership adds a tremendous resource for the CMLA Board, and its continued efforts to ensure the voice of the mid-size and small lenders are heard," said Kim Curtis.

Ms. Guillaume is a 28-year industry veteran and a founding member of Century Lending Company. In January 2014, she was elevated to President where she continues to bring innovative and effective solutions for business partners and customers.

I am very excited to have her as part of the leadership team here at CMLA, said Executive Director, Ed Wallace. Her commitment to the CMLA and our members has proven to be invaluable over the years. I look forward to working with Marla for many years to come."

Marla is currently a council member for the Independent Mortgage Banker Committee and Wholesale Lender Executive Counsel for the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA). She is also a member of the Education Committee for the Kentucky Mortgage Bankers Association and the 2018 Chair of the Signatures Chef Event for March of Dimes, along with holding various positions on many other past and present committees within the mortgage industry.
